VULNERABLE: Donna Stringer in happier times and right, critically injured in hospital

Woman fights for life after firework attack on her care home

HELP POLICE TRACE THUGS

By Michael Cox

barking@yellowad.co.uk

DETECTIVES have renewed appeals for information about a fire at a care home in Barking that has left a woman in a critical condition.

The incident took place at a residential care home in Beccles Drive, which police and London Fire Brigade were called to by London Ambulance Service just after 1am on November 13.

Donna Stringer, 43, who has learning difficulties and requires a wheelchair, was taken to hospital where she remains in a critical condition.

Her next of kin have been informed and her family remain by her bedside.

Seven other residents from the property have had to be moved into alternative accommodation due to the amount of damage caused by the fire, while there were no other reported injuries.

Police are looking to speak to anyone who witnessed an unknown number of people who were setting off fireworks in the area.

The suspects are thought to have targeted a number of homes during that night.

Det Sgt Karl Dines, from Barking and Dagenham CID, said: "This was a deliberate act where fireworks were thrown at a number of homes.

"This is a deeply upsetting incident involving an innocent and helpless victim who has severe learning difficulties.

"Donna is fighting for her life in hospital; medical staff are working tirelessly around the clock to keep her condition stable in the hope that she will recover. The fire has caused significant damage to the care home and devastated Donna's loving family."

DS Hines added that he would like to hear from anyone with information that may help police to identify who is responsible.

Leader of Barking and Dagenham Council Cllr Darren Rodwell said: "This was an extremely cowardly act on some of the most vulnerable people in our community.

"It was not just an attack on them but an attack on our whole community. This kind of behaviour is not welcome in our borough and I am appealing to anyone with information to please contact the police."

Anyone with any information about the fire or the events leading up to it is asked to call Barking and Dagenham CID on 020 3276 1096 or 101. Information can also be e-mailed to LBBDAppeal@met.pnn.police.uk, while witnesses can also contact Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

SEEN BETTER DAYS: Parsloes Park is now part of a consultation plan to restore it to its former glory

Have your say on park regeneration

By Michael Cox

barking@yellowad.co.uk

A PUBLIC consultation event is to be held on plans to regenerate Parsloes Park in Dagenham.

Barking and Dagenham Council wants to see the 58-hectare park restored to make it a popular destination for people.

It wants to address issues such as opportunities for sport, play and recreation, managing flood risk and healthy living.

It has appointed designers Arup who are leading on master planning the restoration and regeneration of the park.

The event, at Dagenham Library from 10am-4pm on December 12, will allow residents to provide information on how they use the park and what improvements they would like to be made.

There will also be the opportunity to provide feedback about the initial ideas for the project and the chance to speak to people developing it.

Council leader Cllr Darren Rodwell said: "The regeneration and restoration of Parsloes Park has the potential to completely transform its current landscape and usage, so residents shouldn't underestimate the importance of giving us their views at this early stage.

"We would love this master plan to be a joint vision, owned by the council, residents and local businesses together, and so if anyone is unable to attend the meeting I'd urge them to fill in the online consultation instead."

The online consultation is available until January 31 and can be found at www.lbbd.gov.uk/parsloespark.

I Walk the Line

The Phantom of Fobbing

NOTHING lasts forever. To this day, home owners are finding and removing tiny bottles of urine and hair, hidden in the walls of old Fobbing houses hundreds of years ago to keep out bad spirits.

I can't vouch for the power of witchcraft, but admit to feeling it, having walked to a phantom waterway from Pitsea Station, on Tuesday.

Fobbing Creek was dyked and drained after the 1953 great flood claimed 58 lives at Canvey.

The tidal channel once serviced the port at the end of what is now Mr and Mrs Stubbs' sunken garden, in Wharf Road.

Hiking the seawall, spirits of a nautical past fill my head. Bullrushes bend in the waterless, windy shallows, and I imagine Thames Barges floating up creek towards St Michael's Church. Like an itch on an amputated leg, the trappings of tide, flood the subconscious of the land, helped by the fact that this is still salt marsh.

Male dragonflies – blood-red with autumn rage – flick around the sloes and hawthorn like tired, old men looking for a warm place to rest before dying. Yellow ragwort runs over the pasture that has grown thick in the silt. Brown hares and pheasants zig-zag behind mounds that were once home to crabs and bass.

EDGELAND: Starlings roost in pylons on Fobbing Marsh

WALK 2: Pitsea Station/Fobbing Marsh
Start/Finish Point: Latitude 51.560418 Longitude 0.50603628
DISTANCE: 10 miles
TIME: 3-4 hrs
TERRAIN: Mostly flat/easy
HISTORY: The 14th Century St Michael's Church (51.527801, 0.47503799); World War II bombing decoy and night shelter for the Shell Haven oil refinery (51.528494, 0.49214244).

Walking east from Wharf Road, the nearest waterline is a 1.4-mile hike. Dumper-trucks bleep from Pitsea Tip, reversing on the easterly breeze from across Hole Haven Creek. The towers of DP World Port and the Shell Haven refinery climb to the south. A man-made edgeland: where wild meets west.

Strings of pylon carry power north-east to Hockley, their ugliness pacified by thousands of noisy starlings roosting in the steel as the sun falls over London. There is the still the 'super' and 'natural', about Fobbing Creek. More so now perhaps; because it's gone.

Web trolls target ailing MP over Syria air strikes

By Kate Pettigrew

waltham@yellowad.co.uk

LONG-SERVING Ilford South MP Mike Gapes, who is recovering in hospital after surgery, has been attacked by trolls on social media over his support for Syrian air attacks.

The MP's office said: "Mike had some chest pains on Friday night and he went into hospital early Saturday morning. He has had surgery and is now recovering."

The region's politicians – including opposition Conservatives – tweeted their support.

But trolls made comments about the 63-year-old, who was due to be voting in the Commons on Wednesday, regarding the Syrian air strikes debate. He had previously indicated his support for action.

Colleague and friend, Ilford North Labour MP Wes Streeting, responded on Twitter to one of the comments saying to the troll: "What an odious little man you are. I'll be leaving your comment here so that people can see the sort of nasty bile that Mike has to put up with."

He said: "We are wishing Mike a speedy recovery and I am sure he will be back in no time."

Walthamstow Labour MP Stella Creasy tweeted: "Oh Mike hope you are OK – much love coming from across the north circular for you."

HOSPITAL: Ilford South Tory MP Mike Gapes is recovering after surgery and left, Ilford North Labour MP Wes Streeting who attacked the trolls Redbridge Tories tweeted for "a quick recovery. We may not always agree but a thoroughly principled and informed MP" Mr Gapes has been Ilford South's MP for 23 years.

He suffered personal tragedy in 2012 when his daughter Rebecca, 19, died from sudden adult death syndrome.

Two hours' free parking

SHOPPERS have free parking for two hours over weekends during December in Waltham Forest.

There will also be free parking in town centre car parks after 3pm, Monday to Friday.

Councillor Clyde Loakes, deputy leader and cabinet member for environment, said: "We want to encourage as many residents as possible to do their Christmas shopping in local shops on the many excellent high streets we have all over the borough."

The car parks are Bedford Road E17, Brandon Road E17, Church Lane E11, Hall Lane E4, High Street E17, Linford Road E17, Mission Grove E17, Richmond Road E4, South Grove E17 and Stanley Road E10. There will be no parking enforcement on December 25, 27, 28 and January 1.

There will also be no vehicle removals on Christmas Eve and New Year's Eve after 12.30pm.

Cllr Loakes added: "Giving away free parking is obviously not a decision we take lightly in these cash-strapped times, so please use our generosity to help support local businesses and give them the vital trade that Christmas brings."

New nature reserve moves a step closer

THE latest stage in transforming 10 reservoirs into the Walthamstow Wetlands – the largest wetland nature reserve in London – was launched this week.

Reed beds and islands are being constructed as part of the £8million plan to transform the 490-acre site into a free rural paradise for Londoners.

The site, made up of reservoirs in Waltham Forest, Haringey and Hackney, will help to preserve water quality and improve wildlife habitats.

It will also be a base for walking, cycling and fishing and offer access to learning about wildlife and nature conservation.

A pumping station will be restored to house a visitor centre, café, exhibition space and education space.

Councillor Clare Coghill, Waltham Forest cabinet member for economic growth and high streets, said: "Preserving the delicate balance of biodiversity is central to this project."

"It's really important that at the same time as encouraging more residents to take advantage of this beautiful corner of the borough, we don't lose sight of the fact this is home to a diverse range of wildlife."

Bioengineering specialists Salix is building revetments to line the banks and re-using dredged silt to create six acres of reed beds. The beds will be filled with material dredged from the reservoir.

Salix business development manager Richard Edwards said the reed beds were an important habitat for a wide range of wetland wildlife and also helped to clean the water by absorbing nutrients.

The wetlands should be open by spring 2017.

TRAIN: Rail operator c2c has won another award

c2c rated as a 5-star service

RAIL operator c2c has been awarded top marks in an independent assessment of how well the company is run.

c2c was awarded five stars in its Recognised for Excellence assessment, carried out by the British Quality Foundation.

c2c Managing Director Julian Drury said: "We are incredibly proud to have scored so well in this assessment. We have made a lot of changes since the new c2c franchise started a year ago, aimed at improving capacity for our passengers, providing greater value and using new technology. And I am very pleased that the energy and enthusiasm of all our employees has been recognised in this prestigious award." It is the second successive time that c2c has been awarded five-star status in the assessment, which measures how c2c performs.

The week-long assessment examined how well c2c is managed in all areas of the business, from running punctual services to the way staff are involved in making decisions.

Assessors praised the new products c2c has launched in the past year, including discounted advance-purchase tickets.

Earlier this year c2c was also named the Passenger Operator of the Year at the 2015 National Rail Awards.

Church carved with grave tales

YOU don't have a particular faith to enjoy going to church.

Visiting a parish church or chapel offers you the chance to walk into a place that has been at the heart of its community for decades, even centuries.

History is literally carved into their furniture and stonework and, amid the excitement of Christmas, churches also offer calm respite from the excesses of the festive season.

The hamlet of Bures on the Essex/Suffolk border can also claim to be one of the most important sites in English history. On Christmas Day in 855, Edmund was crowned King of the Angles at Burva, what is now believed to be Bures.

The site of Edmund's coronation was an ancient royal hill upon which now stands St Stephen's Chapel.

Intrepid visitors to the now disused chapel will be rewarded for seeking it out.

About a mile outside the village and accessed via a track through Fysh House Farm, the chapel contains the effigies of three Earls of Oxford, the only survivors of 21 tombs once found at Earls Colne Priory.

Experts have speculated that there are not three but seven monuments that make up what can be seen today.

The confusion in trying to piece together the tombs was probably caused by the destruction of the original Priory during the Reformation.

You can continue Edmund's story at St Andrew's in Greensted.

This is the oldest wooden church in the world and is believed to be where the body of the martyred King Edmund body was rested on its journey to Suffolk in 870 AD.

Fans of the current BBC2 TV series The Last Kingdom will recall that St Edmund was beaten and then shot with arrows, after St Sebastian, by invading Danish Vikings.

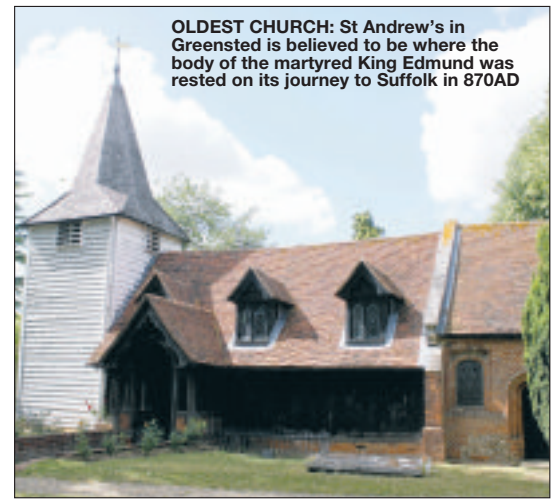

Dating from the 11th century, the wooden walls of this tiny church were already standing when William the Conqueror landed at Hastings in 1066.

However there are traces of earlier foundations beneath the present ones, giving credence to the story about St Edmund.

The brickwork of the chancel and sanctuary is from Tudor times, and the tower from the 17th century.

The ancient grave slab on the right of the porch is thought to mark a crusader's grave.

GHOST STORY COMPETITION

It's time to send us those scary stories

The Yellow Advertiser launched its famous Christmas ghost story competition last month – and it set keyboards clicking... but we want more tales. If you're an aspiring writer living in Essex or east London – and you have a scary story to tell – then get typing on your keyboard.

Book tokens are up for grabs in the adult and children's categories. The top three stories will be published in our first edition of January 2016.

As ghouls have moved into the 21st century, along with the rest of us, judges can only accept stories via email.

The competition is open to schools, so we would like to encourage English departments to take up the challenge to grab the coveted first place for their own literary protégés. The junior section is open to all youngsters aged 16 and under. Entries should be no more than 250 words and emailed to letters@yellowad.co.uk.

The closing date is Sunday, December 6.

Have your say

on the proposed London Overground extension to Barking Riverside

Let us know your views on the preferred route option and inform our application for powers to build the extension.

The extension would support the construction of 10,800 new homes, along with healthcare, shopping and community facilities such as parks and open spaces, opening over 2km of Thames waterfront.

You can find out more and share your views at tfl.gov.uk/barking-riverside

The consultation ends 24 January 2016.

Mid-life makeover refreshes VW Jetta

By Enda Mullen

THE Jetta has always been a somewhat forgotten and overlooked member of the Volkswagen family.

Sitting somewhere between the Golf and the Passat it could easily be dismissed as simply a saloon version of the Golf.

While it hasn't been around as long as Volkswagen's long-serving hatchback, the Jetta is hardly a newcomer. It's been available in some form or other since 1979, albeit with a few name changes along the way.

The Jetta does share its underpinnings with the Golf, so comparisons with it are expected.

Despite that common ground, in reality the Jetta is very much a scaled-down Passat, though to be fair it does have its own distinct identity and it's not a bad looking compact saloon.

The current incarnation of the Jetta is the result of a mid-life makeover that refreshes rather than radically overhauls the car.

The main changes are styling enhancements front and rear, including a more eye-catching grille and trim revisions which offer more variety and equipment.

The latest Jetta also benefits from Volkswagen's fuel-efficient BlueMotion technology across the range. The cabin is roomy and pleasant and has a suitably upmarket feel to it thanks to Volkswagen's high quality fixtures and fittings and attention to detail.

VALUE FOR MONEY: Volkswagen Jetta 2.0 TDI SE DSG

The build quality is as sturdy as one would expect – another VW trademark.

The instrumentation and switchgear also exude an essence of quality – soft touch plastics abound and everything is wonderfully intuitive and easy to use.

Engine-wise there's a raft of petrol and diesel options to choose from.

Volkswagen's 2.0-litre diesel engine might have been the subject of much scrutiny and criticism of late with the ongoing emissions saga but there's no disputing it's a capable performer – smooth, refined and potent in equal measure.

Combined with Volkswagen's proven DSG automatic gearbox it makes for a car that can deliver decent performance and everyday usability.

It's one of the reasons diesel cars have done so well and this one will complete the 0-60mph sprint in under nine seconds while at the same time boasts a combined fuel economy figure of more than 60mpg.

Opt for a manual and economy is closer to 70mpg.

It handles well too, feeling sharp, agile and poised, with just enough of a hint of wolf in sheep's clothing for what is essentially a fairly standard family car. A comfortable and cosseted ride adds to the overall driving experience. While most families tend to opt for traditional hatchbacks, or the ever increasing crop of crossovers in all their shapes and sizes, the Jetta offers a tempting alternative.

While it doesn't have hatchback-style seat folding versatility it has a whopping 510 litres of boot space – 130 litres more than a Golf.

All models, S, SE and GT come generously equipped and include DAB digital radio, ESC electronic stability control, electric windows and air conditioning.

The Jetta's relative anonymity is arguably one of its strengths.

If the idea of a car that isn't two-a-penny on UK roads appeals then it comes close to ticking all the boxes and is good value for money too.

HAMMERS HELD BY BATTLING BAGGIES

West Ham United

West Ham United 1
West Bromwich Albion 1
Brian Jeeves reporting from Upton Park

WEST Ham had to be content with a share of the spoils as Rickie Lambert's deflected leveller for West Bromwich Albion cancelled out Mauro Zarate's brilliant first half opener on a frustrating afternoon for the Hammers.

Hammers boss Slaven Bilic, along with everyone concerned with the east London outfit, was looking for a response following last week's 4-1 derby thrashing at Spurs.

Meanwhile Tony Pulis's Baggies arrived in buoyant mood following an eye catching 2-1 victory over Arsenal at the Hawthorns last week. Despite injury concerns, Pulis was able to field a side including former Manchester United men Jonny Evans and Darren Fletcher.

It was Albion who produced the more fluent football in the early stages, with the home side looking decidedly nervy and a little off the pace.

But it was West Ham who created the first clear opportunity.

Mauro Zarate fired an angled drive into the side netting after Manuel Lanzini and Victor Moses had crafted the opening.

At the other end Salomon Rondon was a whisker away with a thundering drive from distance that briefly gave cause for concern to Hammers keeper Adrian.

But just after 15 minutes the Hammers made the breakthrough in spectacular style. Zarate fizzed an unstoppable dead ball effort beyond Baggies keeper Boaz Myhill and into the top corner of the net, settling any jitters in the process.

The home side should have doubled their money soon after when Cheikhou Kouyate nodded Aaron Cresswell's delicious centre just wide of the target.

The Baggies were wobbling. The industrious Lanzini almost caught out Myhill with a deceptive low drive, and the pair continued their duel, this time the keeper brilliantly turning aside the Argentine's crisp strike after Zarate had picked him out.

West Ham continued to press. Sakho was next to try his luck, this time Evans averted the danger with a last-ditch challenge, while Moses fired high and wide after finding some room among the visitors' stretched rearguard.

After the break the home side were immediately stunned. Albion had offered very little going forward but when substitute Lambert's speculative drive struck Hammers skipper Winston Reid, the wrong footed Adrian could do very little to prevent the Baggies restoring parity.

The visitors almost completed what had earlier seemed an unlikely turnaround when Lambert's troublesome free kick had Spaniard Adrian scurrying across his goal to parry away.

Albion were now asking the sterner questions. Adrian produced a world class reaction save after Rondon's powerful header looked destined for the net. Hammers tried to stem the tide, but this time Zarate's strike was directly into Myhill's midriff.

Hammers rallied. Jonas Olsson deflected Sakho's attempt into the side of the rigging.

Worryingly for Bilic, this was the Senegalese international's last act of the afternoon as he hobbled off to join a lengthening Hammers injury list.

Substitutes Andy Carroll and Nikica Jelavic passed up decent half-chances, while Moses volleyed Lanzini's pinpoint centre agonisingly wide as the home side looked to snatch maximum points.

Meanwhile Albion could have won it but James McClean could only find the grateful Adrian's gloves after getting in behind the home side's static back line.

Cresswell brought the best out of Myhill with a dipping free-kick.

But the visitors held firm to earn a well deserved point, extending the Hammers winless run to four matches in the process.

Speaking after the game, Bilic said: "They deserved something from the second half, but the way we played in the first half, we should have been more than 1-0 up.

"We started nervously. Then after we scored the goal we performed well for half an hour. We created three or four chances and their keeper made a couple of great saves."

Bilic continued: "In the second half we started well, but then they scored the goal and it affected us a lot."

Baggies boss Pulis said: "I thought we started OK. I thought it was a soft free-kick. I've watched it again and again. I actually thought West Ham looked very nervous at the beginning and the goal settled them down.

"We lost focus in and out of possession, and could have come in at half-time more than a goal down.

"Once we got in the dressing room we dusted a few things down and sorted a few things out."

West Ham face a big test when they travel to Old Trafford on Saturday to face Manchester United (3pm).

Non-league round-up

Purcell the hat-trick hero

By Brian Jeeves

GEORGE Purcell was once again the man in form as AFC Hornchurch put Haringey Borough to the sword at Bridge Avenue.

Purcell grabbed an impressive hat-trick while Abs Thompson was also on target as the Urchins won this Ryman League One North clash 4-1.

Jonathan Nzengo and Tyrone Scarlett scored as Barkingside earned a point from a 2-2 draw at Redbridge, and Liam Thomas, Jack Barham and George Cole found the net for Heybridge Swifts in an entertaining 3-3 draw with Waltham Abbey.

But there was little to celebrate for the region's other Ryman North clubs.

Aveley went down 4-2 at home to Brightlingsea Regent, while Great Wakering Rovers fared even worse, falling 5-1 to Dereham Town at Burroughs Park.

And it was a defeat for Romford as well, who went down by the odd goal in five at home to Cray Wanderers.

In the Ryman Premier Division, Harrison Chatting, Steve Sheehan and former West Ham United man Tony Stokes hit the goals as Canvey Island saw off Leatherhead 3-1 at Park Lane.

Quentin Monville gave Billericay Town an early lead against Tonbridge Angels at New Lodge.

However, the visitors hit back through Thomas Parkinson before the break to earn a share of the spoils.

But Brentwood Town remain in relegation trouble after crashing 4-0 at Needham Market.

Braintree Town played out a goal-less National League draw with former Football League outfit Torquay United at Cressing Road.

In the National South Ben Greenhalgh scored at the end of each half to earn Concord Rangers a vital 2-0 win over Maidenhead United at the Aspects Arena.

Grays Athletic and those famous non-leaguers Corinthian Casuals will have to try again after their FA Trophy third qualifying round tie ended 0-0.

In the Essex Senior League Basildon United were shocked by Takeley at Gardiners Close. Michael Ogboin, Andrew Reed and Bradley Smith found the net as the visitors ran out 3-0 winners.

Reece Brandon and Luke Hornsley grabbed late goals as Hullbridge Sports edged out Waltham Forest at Lower Road, while FC Romania were in good form, hitting four without reply against Clapton at the Old Spotted Dog.

Elsewhere in the ESL Ilford and Sporting Bengal United played out a 3-3 draw at the Cricklefield Stadium, and despite a Rhys Fatts goal Southend Manor were beaten at Southchurch Park Arena by Eton Manor.

In selected action from the ProKit UK Essex Olympian League Premier Division, Harold Hill went down 5-3 at home to Hannakins Farm, while Harold Wood Athletic saw off Kelvedon Hatch 2-0.

Orient pulled back by Dons with late equaliser

Leyton Orient

Leyton Orient 1 AFC Wimbledon 1
By Rowland Lyons at the Matchroom Stadium

GOAL machine Jay Simpson was once again on target but the 10 men O's had to settle for a point after Adebayo Akinfenwa grabbed a late equaliser on Saturday.

Loan-man John Marquis was dismissed for a second bookable offence – leaving Orient a player down for more than 30 minutes.

The east Londoners' positive start was rewarded on 10 minutes when Sammy Moore won midfield possession, freed Marquis who beat two defenders, before feeding Simpson with a fine ball.

The division's top scorer then did what he does best and slotted past Ben Wilson for his 15th goal of the season.

Orient needed to grab a second goal to calm their nerves, but instead had to defend for long periods and Jean-Yves M'Voto was lucky to stay on the pitch after pulling back a goalbound Lyle Taylor.

The Dons never really threatened despite all their possession and Alex Cisak's only notable first half effort was to tip over Cole Kpekawa's sliced clearance from under his own bar.

Orient struggled after the break and soon found themselves a man down.

Having already been booked early doors for an innocuous-looking challenge, the always combative Marquis was dismissed for a collision with former Millwall team-mate Paul Robinson on 58 minutes.

The Dons threw everything but the proverbial kitchen sink at the east Londoners. But with boss Ian Hendon having flung on fit-again Mathieu Baudry, in a bid to stem the wave of constant pressure before Marquis's early bath, the home defence seemed to be coping well against the battering-ram of Akinfenwa and pace of Taylor.

On the balance of play, the Dons will feel they deserved at least a point and thought they had finally broken the home side's resistance on 79 minutes when Jon Meades's header looked to be heading home. But, Orient's Australian international gloveman pulled off a save that wouldn't be out of place at the next World Cup in Russia.

But having conceded yet another corner from Cisak's "worldy", the O's failed to clear Georg Francomb's flag-kick and former Charlton loanee, the pacy Adebayo Azeez, crossed for another former O – Akinfenwa – to nod home the simplest of levellers from a couple of yards out, with ten minutes left.

It was cruel on the O's having conceded at a similar time in their mid-week draw at league leaders Plymouth but Hendon was full of praise for his charges.

He said: "I've got to give credit to the players. They were under huge amounts of pressure and they defended really well. It was a good point for us in the end, as we were up against it.

"Those players have given everything in the last three or four games, they had a lot to deal with and they've done well. A lot of sides I know would have collapsed against that Wimbledon side. Credit to the players for battling away and getting the point.

"I am also glad that someone has mentioned that we are on a three-game unbeaten run. We'll take that and move on. I told the players on the pitch afterwards that they've had a good week and ground out a good point today."

Hendon is looking forward to this Saturday's home FA Cup 2nd Round clash with Scunthorpe (kick-off 3pm) and concluded: "The ultimate goal is to try to get promoted this year.

"We're going to match up against a League One side and will see how we go. We want to do well in the competition and get into the Third Round as much as Scunthorpe do."

His opposite number Neal Ardley added: "I thought Orient were the better team in the first 20 to 25 minutes and they deserved to take the lead.

"But we changed our shape and even before the sending-off, there was only one team.

"We deserved the win and if we had come away with anything other than a draw, it would have been a total farce. I'm really proud of my players."
